

Who's Who in Westwood

YOUR GUIDE TO THE WESTWOOD COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

Westwood is powered by neighbors, volunteers, and organizations working together to make our community thrive. Here's a guide to who does what:

Town Hall District Business Association: A member-based group of business owners and representatives from organizations focused on the Town Hall Neighborhood Business District who:

- Support local business owners & stakeholders, providing a forum to address issues
- Advocate for infrastructure and enhancements that benefit the business district
- Produce events like Town Hall Live concerts in order to further activate the district
- Market the district to attract new businesses, new residents and visitors (web, social media, banners, signage)

MEETINGS Email below for meeting and membership information if you are a local business owner in the Town Hall District

WEBSITE townhalldistrict.org

EMAIL info@townhalldistrict.org

WESTWOOD CIVIC ASSOCIATION

Westwood Civic Association: The recognized community council of Westwood

- Volunteer-led; advocates for residents and quality of life issues
- Leads creation and implementation of Westwood Neighborhood Plan
- Provides a platform for neighbors to stay informed and get involved
- Committees: School Enhancement, PIBZ (Properties, Infrastructure, Buildings and Zoning), Public Safety, Governance, Outreach, Membership
- Westwood Community Gardens
- Sells Westwood neighborhood flag

MEETINGS Third Tuesday of each month at 7PM at Westwood Town Hall

WEBSITE westwoodcivic.org

EMAIL info@westwoodcivic.org

Westwood Community Urban Redevelopment Corporation: A non-profit, volunteer-led community development organization focused on:

- Revitalizing Westwood through property acquisition, redevelopment, and the facilitation of development activities
- Promotes stabilization, reinvestment and increased value of Westwood properties
- Works to return distressed and abandoned properties to productive use

MEETINGS Board meets the 2nd Tuesday of each month

WEBSITE westcurc.org

EMAIL info.westcurc@gmail.com

Who's Who in Westwood

YOUR GUIDE TO THE WESTWOOD COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

Westwood is powered by neighbors, volunteers, and organizations working together to make our community thrive. Here's a quick guide to who does what:

Westwood Historical Society: A group dedicated to discovering, preserving, and sharing Westwood history by:

- Sharing local history through meetings and newsletters.
- Collecting and maintaining relevant documents, historical artifacts, and memorabilia.
- Participating in or sponsoring community events including walking tours and the Westwood Home Tour.
- Advocating for preservation of historic sites and structures.

MEETINGS Second Wednesday at 7PM, nine months of the year. No meetings are held in January, June, or August. Most meetings take place at Westwood First Presbyterian Church. Check the website "events" for specific meeting information.

WEBSITE westwoodhistorical.org

EMAIL info@westwoodhistorical.org

Westwood Works: An asset-based community development organization that:

- Produces free community events like Westwood Second Saturdays (Pride, Revive, Feast), Westwood Art Show & Wine Festival, Westwood Tiny Concert Series, Westwood Works [Out], Howl at the Hall and quarterly community meetings
- Runs a mini grant program for neighbor-led projects
- Manages development projects: green space, housing, commercial & cultural spaces like the Westwood Theatre
- Led by their staff, board of directors & committees: communications, outreach, fundraising, development, events

MEETINGS Quarterly on the last Wednesday of the month, rotating locations. Meeting information on website and Facebook

WEBSITE westwoodworks.org

EMAIL info@westwoodworks.org

get involved

Each Westwood nonprofit organization welcomes volunteers, members, board, and committee members.

Together, we're building a stronger, more connected Westwood. These organizations need you on the team. We hope you'll choose to join the one that best fits your passions!

